

Learning to Draw

Friday, October 14, 2016
10 AM to 4:30 PM

The Morgan's extensive drawings collection includes many objects that exemplify the means by which professional artists learned to draw: drawing manuals, model books, academic studies, and sketches after the antique. This one-day seminar will address the history of drawing pedagogy and explore the methods and tools fundamental to the practicing draftsman.

This seminar is open to graduate students of the history of art. Interested participants are kindly invited to submit a one paragraph statement which should include the following:

- Name
- Email
- Academic institution
- Class year
- Field of study
- Interest in drawings
- Reasons for wanting to participate in seminar
- A brief recommendation from the student's advisor is suggested but not required.

Application Deadline: September 23, 2016

Applications should be submitted electronically to: drawinginstitute@themorgan.org
Participants will be notified by September 30, 2016.
