

THE MORGAN BOOK PROJECT 2019-2020

“Arts at the Core of Collaboration and Cross Curricular Skills”

GENERAL APPLICATION

Yes, we want to apply to the MORGAN BOOK PROJECT, a free program for all New York City public schools, which includes:

- A Four-Day Summer Institute for Teachers at the Morgan Library and Museum (Please check one)

JULY 9–12, 2019 (Grades 3–5 and District 75 Schools)

AUGUST 13–16, 2019 (Grades 6–12)

- Two class trips to the Morgan Library and Museum with the participating students (October- November 2019)

- A Technical Support Meeting at the Morgan Library and Museum (December 2019)

- A class project with Morgan program staff support (October 2019-March 2020)

- The Morgan Book Project Award (TBD)

Teachers must apply as a pair. Each teaching pair must include a Visual Arts teacher and a Social Studies or Language Arts or classroom teacher of grades 3 to 12.

*All teachers must commit to the full four-day Summer Institute for Teachers, the two class trips to the Morgan, the Technical Support Meeting, the classroom project, and the submission of three students’ works for consideration for the Morgan Book Project Award.

School Name:	School Number:	Borough:
Principal’s First and Last Name:	Email:
Visual Arts Teacher’s First and Last Name:	Grades:	Email:
SS or ELA or Classroom Teacher’s First and Last Name:	Grades:	Email:
How many students/classes will be participating in the Project?	Do you need to apply for a teaching artist? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No * For information about teaching artists please go to themorgan.org/teachingartist .

Mail this application with photos of at least three samples of your current or past students’ art work copied onto a CD, and photocopies of at least three samples of your students’ writing to:

The Morgan Book Project/Education Department
The Morgan Library and Museum
225 Madison Avenue
New York, NY 10016

Applicants who have been accepted and their principals will receive a confirmation letter. If you have questions, please contact us at jcomer@themorgan.org or 212.590.0356.