

"Little Maid of Arcadee."

Words by

W. S. Gilbert.

Music by

Arthur S. Sullivan.

Miss May Banks

from

Arthur S. Sullivan

London. June 2^d 1872.

Moderato e semplice.

Voice

piano mf p

Lit. the maid of Ar-ca-dee.

Sat on Con-sin Ro-bin's knee Thought in form and face and limb, No-body could

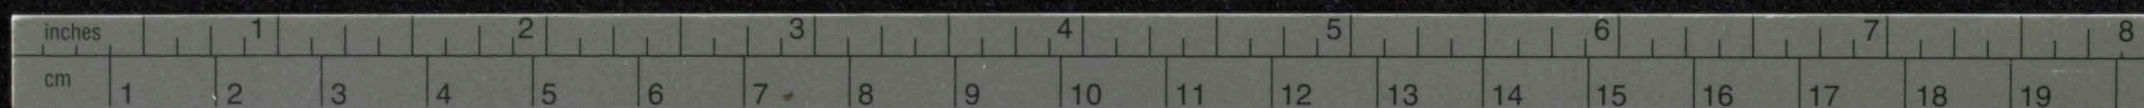

ped *

ri-val him. He was rich and she was fair, Truth, they made a pret-ty pair. Happy lit-the mai-dens

rall. a tempo. mf

rall. a tempo. mf

she Happy maid of Ar-ca-dee. Happy lit-the maiden she, Happy maid of Ar-ca-dee rall.

Hap-py Maid of Ar-ca-dee.

rall. a tempo

Mo-ments sped as mo-ments will, Ra-pid-ly e-nough un-til Af-ter, say, a month or two

p

rall. a tempo

Ro-bin did as Ro-bins do — Fickle as the Month of May, Sil-kened her and went a-way.

f

rall e dim. a tempo

Wret-ched lit-tle Ma-iden she, Do-le-ful Maid of Ar-ca-dee. Do-le-ful Maid of Ar-ca-dee. To her lit-tle home she rall e dim. p a tempo

crept, Then she sat her down and wept - Maiden wept as maidens will grew so thin, so

ped *

Animato rall: a tempo

thin and pale, un-kel Cousin Ri-chard came to woo, Then a-gain the ro-ses grew Happy lit-tle maiden

f a tempo

she Happy Maid of Ar-ca-dee. Happy lit-tle maiden she, Happy Maid of Ar-ca-dee

rall:

Happy Maid of Ar-ca-dee!

colla voce

Arthur S. Sullivan

